TENTATIVE DRAFT

CENTRALIZATION OF SELECTION FOR PARTICIPATION
IN THE CIA CAREER SERVICE PROGRAM

1. INTRODUCTION

It was agreed to consider the subject of centralization of selection of candidates for participation in the Career Service Program in over-all, general terms as distinguished from the "mechanics" of the selection process which will involve detailed consideration of such specific items as promotion policy, selection out, and so forth.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

A. As a minimum standard the selection process should be decentralized to at least the Office level in the present meaning of that term in CIA and be a primary responsibility of Assistant Directors and comparable officials. In order to provide further decentralization if the size of a particular unit makes it necessary for efficient and equable processing, office-level boards (or Assistant Directors) may create additional, equally empowered boards as necessary.

B. CIA Career Service Board

Members: Deputy Director, CIA or alternate

Deputy Director, Plans or alternate

Deputy Director, Administration or alternate

Director of Training

Assistant Director, Personnel

Secretariat (Career Development Staff: Personnel Office)

III. DISCUSSION

It was generally acknowledged that the current proposal for establishment of a "Career Service" unit in the Personnel Division to work in conjunction with the Office Board "Secretariats" was sound and essential. With regard to the "Office Boards" the sense of the meeting was firmly against permitting lower than Staff and Division Chiefs as members.
